Re: Consumer Fin. Protection Bureau v. Sprint Corp., 14 CV 9931 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

Plaintiff, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB"), and Defendant, Sprint Corporation ("Sprint"), (collectively "the Parties"), respectfully seek an extension of time concerning certain upcoming deadlines in this case. Specifically, Sprint requests an additional 60 days, or until May 22, 2015, to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the Complaint in this matter. Plaintiff CFPB consents to Sprint's request. The Parties further request adjournment of the currently scheduled initial pretrial conference currently set for March 27, 2015, for an additional 60 days, or until May 26, 2015.

The Parties have discussed this request with your judicial clerk, and have communicated that the Parties believe the additional time would be beneficial, for good cause, and is in the interest of justice. The Parties have filed a Rule 26(f) report, and do not anticipate this request impacting any other proposed deadlines.

Respectfully submitted,

Genessa Stout/ISC
with permission
